QUIZ GRADE

Rising English III - American Lit

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

1. Choose a character (major or minor) that reminds you of you!. In a paragraph, explain what you think you have in common - attitudes, actions, etc. Be honest!
2. Write out at least two quotes from the novel for each of the following. Then, in a paragraph for EACH, explain the connection(s) to our society today.
 - a. Random cruelty
 - b. Censorship of books & beliefs
2. In a paragraph, explain whether you think we are living in a dystopian society or not and why.

Rising English IV - British Lit

Choose one of the following:

And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie

OR

The Murder of Roger Ackroyd by Agatha Christie

1. List the major characters with a brief description of each one's ATTITUDE (not physical appearance). Be careful to list all of them!
2. Choose a character (major or minor) that reminds you of you!. In a paragraph, explain what you think you have in common - attitudes, actions, etc. Be honest!
3. In a paragraph, pretend you are the murderer's defense attorney. Explain why you think your client should not be imprisoned. Use quotes (more than one!) from the reading to support your claim.

NOTE 1: Cite your quotes properly - (author's last name page number).

NOTE 2: Three sentences are NOT considered a paragraph in my classes.

NOTE 3: There will be another QUIZ over the whole novel the first full week of school.

I do NOT drop the lowest grade unless you complete the assigned extra credit for the quarter.
